KILLERS, FREAKS, AND RADICALS

Amid the radical politics and cultural upheaval of the late 1960s, a series of brutal murders targeting young women terrorized the twin university towns of Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti, Michigan. This independent and locally-made documentary examines not just a series of crimes, but the social and political tensions that enabled them, many of which still resonate today.

1969: Killers, Freaks, and Radicals, a chilling and local true crime documentary showing at Harrison Township Public Library! Followed by a Q+A with Director Andrew Templeton.

A Note from the FRIENDS of the Harrison Township Public Library:

We hope you had a great summer! The FRIENDS were happy to sponsor many library events, especially during the Summer Reading Kickoff.

We partnered with the Autism Society of Greater Detroit to provide a Decompression Corner at the Summer Reading Kickoff where people could experience calming activities in a supportive setting. Thank you to the Autism Society for their assistance in obtaining a grant for the library to better serve our community.

Thank you to Lori's Lick 'Em Up crew and our generous community for a successful fundraiser!
