National Ding-a-Ling Day

December 12th

A very special day to "Ring your Bell". On national Ding-a-Ling Day, you should brace yourself for bizarre and crazy behavior, from all of the people you encounter today. Even normally conservative people have been known to go a little crazy on this day!

Going on a holiday road trip?

Check out our selection of audio books. It's a great way to bring the family together, and keep your eyes on the road. We have something for everyone.

Festivus—It's for the Rest of Us!

December 23rd

Are you feeling left out? You don't celebrate Christmas or Chanukah. Kwanzaa just isn't your thing and you don't even know what Ramadan is.

Then, the Miracle of Festivus is for you!

Symbol: an unadorned aluminum pole

Dinner: Meatloaf

Traditions: Feats of Strength &
Airing of Grievances

What's Happening

Make a holiday gift for your family and friends.

Join us for craft night. We will be making Mason Jar Candle Holders.

Saturday, December 12th at 1:00 pm

One FREE craft per person

Registration required, call email or stop in the library to sign up.

Children's Fall Programs

October 10—December 19, 2015

Mother Goose on the Loose

Presented by Julie Dries

Youth Services Librarian

Mondays, 9:30-10:00, except November 16th & 23rd.

Designed for children from birth to 2 years old.

Little ones and their caregivers are invited to join us for our weekly Monday lap sit program. MGOL is a research-based, award-winning program to help babies and toddlers develop early literacy skills using stories, music, nursery rhymes and more.

For more information, please check out our website: www.htplib.org.

Reading ABCs

Presented by Julie Dries

Youth Services Librarian

Tuesdays, 10:30-11:00, except November 24th.

Designed for preschool-aged children, 3-5 years old.

Our story time themes each week on Tuesdays will revolve around a featured letter of the alphabet and will include a variety of entertaining finger plays, songs, rhymes, movement and stories.

For more information, please check out our website: www.htplib.org.

Rockin' Readers

Presented by Julie Dries

Youth Services Librarian

Saturdays, 11:30–12:00, except November 14th & 28th.

Designed for elementary-aged children, 5-11 years old.

Saturday sessions will highlight a different high-interest theme or genre each week, with stories and activities to match.

For more information, please check out our website: www.htplib.org.

Tales with Tails

Tuesdays and the third Saturday of each month. Please check www.htplib.org for dates and times.

Appropriate for children in elementary and middle school.

Children may sign-up for a 15-minute session to read to a certified therapy dog. This program encourages fluency practice by providing a furry friend to listen in a judgement-free zone.

Registration is required for this program. Please stop by the library, email: librarian@htplib.org or call (586) 329-1261 to reserve a time.
