Every single year, the United States of America celebrates National Fire Prevention Week. It will start every 9th of October. This is actually the commemoration of 1871 Great Chicago Fire.

October is National COOKIE MONTH

Bake some cookies or buy them from a store or bakery. Share them with family, friends, neighbors, co-workers or keep them for yourself. Everyone loves a cookie.

Try a new recipe or stick with your favorite. There is no wrong way to celebrate National Cookie Month!

Use #NationalCookieMonth to post on social media.

PS.... Great time to start thinking about what to bake for the Friends of Harrison Township Public Library Cookie Walk. Our December Cookie Walk is coming up fast. And we need all the bakers we can get. Start getting your recipes and supplies ready!
