Happenings in July

Saturday, July 7th at 1pm ~ Mantras and Malas: Tools for Meditation

Mantras and Malas are much more than sounds and material objects. They are assets and allies in our quest for inner peace and help us to find our deeper nature. Having the right meditation tools can make all the difference to your health, happiness, and spiritual development. Bring your own Malas or borrow a set. There will be malas for purchase also.

Wednesday, July 11th at 7pm ~ Salty Mitten

It's not an urban legend: a vast, underground salt mine really does exist below the streets of Detroit. A prehistoric salt deposit, located under Michigan's Lower Peninsula, lay undisturbed until the middle of the 1800s. Since then, salt production has become a vital component of the state's industrial and economic history. Michigan's salty history will be presented by Erik Nordberg, the director of the Walter P. Reuther Library at Wayne State University.

Wednesday, July 18th at 11am ~ Sit and Be Fit

Fitness is an important aspect of overall health. This class is a great alternative for those practitioners that have limited mobility. We will focus on healthy posture, breathing, and movement. There will be some standing movements, optional for those who are extremely limited in mobility. If you have fitness straps or small hand weights, these can be used in this practice as well.

Wednesday, July 18th at 7pm ~ Funky Summer Dishes with Chef Fran

Looking for summer inspiration in the kitchen? Chef Fran of Pamela's Catering will be here to make delicious warm-weather dishes. She'll whip up a recipe, and we'll all get to taste it when she's done. Your summer dinners can be healthy and fun. Join us for this cooking workshop.

Saturday, July 21st at 1pm ~ Lone Ranger

"Who was that masked man?" In the 1930s, audiences in the Motor City were hooked on the radio drama of the Lone Ranger, which was broadcast from the Maccabees Building in Detroit. Artist, radio historian, and collector Larry Zdeb will be joined by a member of the original cast to discuss the origins of the Lone Ranger radio drama, the cast of actors who voiced the parts, and answer questions from the audience about Detroit's own 'Masked Man'.

Tuesday, July 24th at 7pm

Marsh King's Daughter Book Club with the author Karen Dionne

Don't miss out on the unique book club. Karen Dionne will be at HTPL to discuss her book The Marsh King's Daughter with our book club. Make sure you read the book, or you won't be able to discuss the book. Please bring your own copy of the book if you'd like to have it signed by the author.

Registration is required for all programs. Please call, visit our email or stop in the library to sign up.
