A Voice for the Voiceless

Macomb Humane Society

March 16, Saturday at 1pm:

The Humane Society of Macomb provides a wide range of services and promotes education in a variety of areas, all relating to animals. Each year, this no-kill shelter takes in and adopts out hundreds of cats and dogs. Come and hear how this growing facility operates on a daily basis, the programs it offers, how it is involved in the community, and what you can do to be a friend to animals. We will also be accepting donations of pet food and pet supplies at the event.

Ready to Read Michigan Story Time

March 19, Tuesday at 10:30am

Join us Tuesday, March 19 at 10:30 a.m. for a story, songs, fingerplays & other activities during this "Ready to Read Michigan" story time for families with infants, toddlers and preschoolers. Featured book: Touch the Brightest Star by Christie Matheson

No pre-registration is necessary.

The Library of Michigan's Ready to Read Michigan program encourages reading aloud regularly to children during the early stages of life (birth up to age 5), as it ensures the development of early literacy skills and instills a love of reading. The program is designed for public librarians to model early literacy skill development directly to families and engage in outreach to early childhood centers, classroom and daycares throughout their community.

Current Happenings

March 5th, Wednesday at 7pm: Del's Community Chair Yoga

This group has been formed to bring together those who want to connect and move together in a supportive environment. We use chairs to support our foundation so that we can move with ease while enjoying the benefits of the yoga experience. Please bring an open heart and a mat or blanket so we can seal our practice with a wonderful shavasana. Class will start promptly at 7pm, so feel free to arrive a little early and get settled in!

Saturday, March 9 at 1pm: Irish Yoga

Yoga doesn't have to be so serious! In this Irish Yoga class, we will share a few jokes and learn some Irish proverbs while relaxing the mind and strengthening the body. This is a basic level class, with easier modifications available for anyone who needs it.

Wear comfortable clothing (especially green or orange!), bring a mat, towel or blanket to sit on, and bring your family or best buddies for a good healthy workout.

March 13, Wednesday at 11am: Home Improvement and Repair: Senior Seminar - Allison Bonacci from MI Attorney General

Come to the library to learn the telltale signs of home repair scams, unscrupulous contractors, and how to navigate the home improvement process. This program is provided by the Michigan Attorney General's office.

March 13th, Wednesday at 7pm: Anti-Inflammatory Diet

Inflammation can cause or worsen many health problems. In this seminar, Renee Pokoj from Organic Stepping Stones will share simple changes that may improve your overall health with a bonus of weight loss too.

The focus of this class is all about the foods to consume and those to temporarily avoid.

March 20, Wednesday at 7pm: Secret Detroit-Karen Dybis

What does salt mine, a former nuclear missile storage site, and a Quonset hut community have in common? Come to the library to hear Karen Dybis, the author of "Secret Detroit", fill us in on all the hidden details of the Motor City. Books will be available for purchase and signing by the author.

March 23, Saturday at 1pm: Craft Hour

March 26, Tuesday at 7pm: Book Club - Before We Were Yours by Lisa Wingate

March 27, Tuesday at 7pm: Trivia Night

Test your trivia skills and have a relaxing, fun evening at the library. You can register as a team of 1-6 people, or we can pair you up at the event if you don't want to play solo. Prizes will be awarded to the highest scoring team, and refreshments will be served!

Friday, March 29th from 9-4: Tax Prep at Library

Macomb County Veterans Services and the IRS VITA program are partnering with the Harrison Township Public Library to provide free tax help for both military veterans and those whose annual family income is less than $55,000. Appointments are required!

Call the Macomb County Veterans Services at 586-463-2537 to set up a time, and then come to the library with your required documents.
