Go back to school with HTPL

Whether you or your kids are going back to school in person, virtually, or somewhere in between, HTPL's got you covered. Your library membership comes with free, on-demand access to online tutoring through Tutor.com. Through this resource, you can also take practice quizzes and review your past work. For the little ones in your life, Scholastic BookFlix features paired fiction and nonfiction animated stories. Children can read along with these online books, and deepen their reading skills by doing related activities. HTPL patrons can also get free access to Infobase

Learning Cloud, which is an on-demand teaching and learning platform offering professional development, training, and information literacy solutions.

Job Fair planned for September 27

Local businesses are eager to hire and it is a job seeker's market. At least twenty local businesses that are actively hiring will be waiting for you at the Harrison Township Job Fair.

The event will take place from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on September 27 at Total Sports, 40501 Production Drive. There will also be raffle drawings and giveaways for participants.

The job fair is brought to you by the Harrison Township Public Library and the Harrison Township Economic Development Corporation, with thanks to Total Sports for the use of their meeting space.

Miss Book Break at the Beach?

Summer might be over, but that doesn't mean story time has to be! Our new Youth Services Librarian, Miss Tina, is hosting two new story times this fall! Beginning September 13, join us for Pop-Up Storytime at 11 a.m. every Monday under the pavilion at Waterfront Park for stories, dancing, and fun! This special series will run through October 25.

If you can't make it on Monday, join us on Facebook Live for Storytime Shake Up! We will be streaming at 10 a.m. every Wednesday, September 15 to December 8. We will read cool books, dance, sing, and maybe do a craft some weeks. No registration is required for either event.
